The Edwin L. Hawkins Scholarship Committee awards annual scholarships to outstanding students each year since 2002. The committee was successful in their pursuit of a $10,000 community service grant from Arvest bank. Since that time, your class has given nearly $50,000 in scholarships! Be Proud, Bearcats!

Scholarship Awards Guidelines

The Horace Mann Senior High School Transitional Class of 1972 is proud to present the 15th annual Scholarship awards program named in association with the school. The scholarship is appropriately named in honor of the late Mr. Edwin L. Hawkins, Sr. who was the principal of Horace Mann Senior High School from 1959 until its closing as a high school in 1971. Mr. Hawkins was known at the school and around the city for his personable way with students. He is fondly remembered walking the hallways and breezeways talking, encouraging, and challenging students to set high goals and expectations for themselves. He would often remark son, young lady “I challenge you!” In the fall of 1971, 183 fellow classmates from Horace Mann High School were having bittersweet feelings about their upcoming senior year. The start of their most important and anxiously awaited school year was overshadowed by the transitioning of their class at this milestone in their lives. These 183 souls were now the proud, former students at Horace Mann High School. It was decided by the Little Rock School District that Horace Mann would no longer be a community landmark and neighborhood high school. A school that for the first time in its existence would no longer graduate classes of eager young people anxiously anticipating meeting the challenges of higher education and life in general. Horace Mann would no longer be counted as one of Little Rock's public high schools. Little Rock Central, Hall High and the newly erected Parkview would become the only high schools in the city at that time.

The 183 students who dreamed of being the Horace Mann Senior class of 1972 saw their dream not realized. In order to achieve equal educational opportunities, these students experienced integration. These former students were somewhat transfixed to the three high schools in the city, began to be called and to this day still are recognized as the Horace Mann Transitional Class of 1972. Over 50 years later, Mr. Hawkins' words live on through this Scholarship Awards Program. The first scholarships were announced August 31, 2002 at the 30 th reunion celebration of the Horace Mann Transitional Class of 1972, where four outstanding high school graduates received awards. Our goal for this scholarship program is to help deserving students pursue their educational dreams and to "Challenge" them to be all they can be.

Best Regards,

Horace Mann Transitional Class 1972
